

United We Stand, Divided We Fall
~A Survey of 1 Corinthians

Unity in the Gospel

1 Corinthians 15

- 1) What is the message that's proclaimed in every sermon preached – in Acts?
 - “God has _____ this Jesus to life, and we are _____ of the fact.” (Acts 2:32)
 - “You killed the author of life, but God _____ him from the dead. We are _____ of this.” (Acts 3:15)
 - God _____ Jesus from the dead; we are _____ of these things.” (Acts 5:30-32)
- 2) How did Paul define the gospel – in 1 Corinthians 15?
 - “For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ _____ for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was _____ on the third day according to the Scriptures, and that He _____ to Peter, and then to the Twelve.” (1 Corinthians 15:3-5)
- 3) What if the resurrection didn't happen?
 - The entire Christian faith would crumble like a house of _____.
→ “If Christ has not been raised from the dead, our preaching is _____, and so is your faith.” (1 Cor 15:14)
- 4) Why is the question of whether Jesus rose from the dead so important?
 - If God raised Jesus from the _____, it vindicates everything Jesus _____!
→ And what Jesus said was that He is the Son of God, the Savior of the world, the One in whom forgiveness of sins is found, and the Lord, to whom we owe our very lives.

The Invitation

- 1) Enter into a journey of truly searching out the question of whether or not Jesus rose from the dead. Pick up one of books in the foyer as a way of taking a first step on the journey.

- 2) If you haven't yet put your trust in Jesus – and you want a place to talk through some of your questions (and hear more of the reasons why I came to a place of conviction about Jesus) – then sign up (at the book table in the foyer) to meet with me.

- 3) If you realize today the truth of the gospel – then head into the prayer chapel (next to the book table) – so that someone from our prayer team can pray for you – as you take this step of receiving Christ's forgiveness and entering into a new life.

“If you confess with your mouth, ‘Jesus is Lord,’ and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.”
